INDIAN STORY OF GENESIS.

Why the White Man Is Superior to the Red and Black.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 25 -- Among the Indians there is an interesting legend about the origin of the races. stars appear to lose their liveliness of light and shine without twinkling, as According to the old, old story as if is told around the camp fires of the minute bright points in the sky, fair weather is in prospect. Studies are made in this country seem to contradict this popular belief. It has been found that when the stars are feeble stars are feeble stars are feeble stars. Indians, the Creator made three men, all of fair skin. He took them to a lake and told them to jump in. The first plunged in end came out white. The second creature hesitated and at hand.
